

EDITOR'S PICKS

Wall Over

Jotun has just announced the Jotun Global Colour Trends, and introduced three colour themes named City Motions, Silent Serenity and Lush Garden – to suit the ambience of the contemporary home, and to fit every kind of personality. Take for example, a colour from their Silent Serenity series, aptly named Blushing Peach (pictured above), comprising soothing creams, desert brown and muted peaches. Inspired by the hipster dreamer, the shade celebrates relaxed and slow living.

Visit jotun.com

“We had a crazy desire to deconstruct our way of imagining the kitchen for the past several years. At Coquo, all our modules and collections are compatible and can be mixed so that you can create your own layout.”

BRIGITTE BOULANGER
CO-CREATOR OF COQUO

For more information,
visit coquo.ca

Throw It In

Give monochromatic colours a miss this year and add a touch of effortless elegance and vibrancy with Tatum's latest new brand addition, Oyuna. Its throws come in fantastic and vivid shades of orange, red and emerald green, guaranteed to decor and provide a welcome distraction to the eyes.

Visit tatumcompany.com

Coquo, meaning I cook in Latin, offers versatile, timeless kitchen furniture – designed so that the pieces can be recycled in their function and put in another room of the house.