Renovation Stops

Looking to fit-out that new kitchen or bathroom, or seeking stunning materials to go on a feature wall? Here are our picks on where to go for a complete home makeover.

Tatum

Founded by Dutch stylist and designer Gerardine Loggere, Tatum design studio hails from Kuala Lumpur and has set up shop here. Besides materials such as fabrics, check out the opulent Jacco Maris lighting and reclaimed barn-wood furniture from Barn in the City. It also has an in-house interior designer and architect.

GF+A Global

As you wander around the newly revamped GF+A Global showroom, you won't be able to stop admiring its exquisite, iridescent mosaic-clad surfaces. For your home, choose from a large collection of mosaic designs from Italian brands Bisazza and Sics, or customise your own. If you want simpler alternatives, the company also offers tiles in various sizes and designs from Europe.

Hafary

Launched late last year, Hafary's Eunoo showroom spans a staggering 23,000sqf. This flagship store carries over 5,000 designs of tiles, stones, mosaic and wood flooring. Its range of Mediterranean and Peranakan-style patterned tiles and wood-look tiles are right on trend, too. Shop for sanitary ware and fittings by European and Asian brands.

E&A Interiors

The new E&A Interiors showroom exudes a subtle English charm with its wallpapered surfaces, upholstered vintage-style furniture and embellished lamps. Offered are interior design services, art and antique sourcing, and lighting and furniture pieces from Vaughan Designs. It also has boutique soft-furnishing brands such as Carolina Irving Textiles and Peter Dunham Textiles.

Design Hub

Newly opened in March, this design destination aims to fulfil all your renovation needs. Available are decorative materials such as tiles and wallcoverings, as well as kitchen systems, sanitary ware, furniture and lighting from world-class international brands, such as Veneta Cucine, Devon & Devon, Caesarstone, FX Australia and Farrow & Ball.
