

LOOKBOX ANNUAL 2017

SPECIAL

Singapore
leading inter-
designers y
need to kno

192 PAGES OF INSPIRING HDBS, CONDOS &
LANDED HOMES

LOOKBOXLIV
SINGAPORE

81886385

PRODUCT GALLERY

Living room
[page 36]

Dining room
[page 46]

Kitchen
[page 52]

Bathroom
[page 58]

Bedroom
[page 64]

Study
[page 68]

Children's room
[page 74]

Outdoor
[page 78]

Storage
[page 82]

Rugs
[page 84]

Lighting
[page 86]

Accessories
[page 88]

TABLE TALK

Completing your sofa is a coffee table that can multi-task as worktop, a storage space or the setting for a vignette to showcase your decorating flair.

Alexander Lamont Alexandria Coffee Table

Inspired by British designer Alexander Lamont's beloved Alexandria Salon Table, this coffee table was scaled up to create a similar, if not more, impact. The tabletop is clad in ivory shagreen with white lacquer, a beautifully subtle contrast against the polished brass frame.

Price on enquiry, from Tatum Singapore, www.tatumcompany.com

Champignons Mushroom Canned Food Stool/Low Table

Open a can of childhood memories with this quirky novelty piece. Beyond the amusement, this plywood table is actually more useful than it looks as it can also function as a stool, footrest or even as an ottoman. Just top this living room staple with a round cushion to convert it from table to chair.

$169, from Nalisse, www.nalisse.com

Loop&Co Gio Coffee Tables

Taking distressed surfaces to the next level is the Gio Table from Italy. Each hand-decorated wooden top features an elaborate metal varnish that mimics the natural patina of metal. Available in different dimensions, heights and colour, you're bound to find one that fits well in your home.

$1,915 onwards, from The Beuro, www.thebeuro.com

Jacob Coffee Table

We love the kooky pairing of shapes with the Jacob coffee table. Irregular forms pair well with the sophistication of Calacatta marble in this high contrast piece. The table sits on solid brushed oak legs with painted black finish and the visible mark of the legs further add to the unconventional appeal. With its low-slung stature, it emits an understated yet timeless appeal.

Price on enquiry, from Minotti Singapore by Marquis Interiors, www.minotti.com

Gubi TS Table

Inspired by the architecture of a building in 1930s Copenhagen, this metal-and-marble table was designed to impress in lounges, living rooms and entrance foyers. The criss-crossing base, strong yet slim profile and lavish marble veining render a strong visual statement.

$997 onwards, Danish Design, www.danishdesignco.com.sg

Orb Coffee Table

The Orb coffee table has an interesting backstory. The tabletop is inspired by the shape of leftover bar soaps; elliptical pieces that are thin along the edges and thicker in the middle. It's a quirky piece, especially with the metal legs that are designed to suggest an infinite motion.

$625, from Ethnicraft Online Singapore, www.ethnicraft-online.com.sg

Golgi Nesting Coffee Table

What we love most about nesting tables is the ability to add or remove tabletop space. The space-savvy Golgi table is a solid rubber wood table with black powder coated steel legs. We love its stark simplicity that makes it a perfect fit in most interior designs.

$790, from Bláfink, www.blafink.com

Stanley Rectangular Coffee Table

This no-nonsense, Brutalist-inspired table is charming in its own way. Made from a mix of stone composite and natural cement, the Stanley table is usable both indoors and out. You'll love the hand-finished quality and how the table colour will gradually and naturally change over time.

$499, from Castlery, www.castlery.com

Jigsaw Modular Coffee Table

The simplicity of this table's form belies its intricate craftsmanship. As its name suggests, multiple pieces of the Jigsaw fit like a glove to form any configuration. A closer look shows that the table is made of individually hand-laminated natural sika rattan.

$749, from Departures & Arrivals, www.livingdna.sg

PACK A PUNCH

Personalise your living room with our pick of style essentials.

Online Curtains & Blinds Platform: Shadespace

Picking out the right window coverings for your home can be a tough call but Shadespace makes it an effortless experience with its digital visualisation services. As Singapore's first online platform for visualising curtain and blinds against a pre-set wall colour option, users will get to see how the final product will turn out in a matter of clicks. You can now forget about tiny fabric samples that can cause confusion and disappointment.

www.shadespace.com.sg

Lema Notch Pouf

This minimalistic fabric pouf by Johan Lindstén features aged natural leather straps that are more than just a decorative accent. They can be used as handles that carry the pouf around the home. Combining aesthetic and functional value, this icon of modern nomadism renders a plush touch to your space.

Price on enquiry, from W.Atelier, www.watelier.com

Vintage Telephones

Forget your fancy mobile phones! Go retro with these British-inspired replica telephones that you can connect to your landline. They may look like a blast from the past, but these telephones are fitted with common modern features like push button dialing and redial button.

$109 onwards, from Mono Yono, www.monoyono.com

Alexander Lamont Gemstone Mirror Aqua Straw

Jewel hues and the reflective attributes of natural dyed straw are set in a faceted pattern within this enchanting mirror. The frame is adorned with sapphire blues that shine in a gentle contrast of tonal colours. When it catches the light, its lustrous surface of thick and warmly brass patina emits a most alluring scene.

$9,500, from Tatum Singapore, www.tatumcompany.com

Egger Laminate Collection

Sporting a three-dimensional stitch effect, this Egger laminate series will change the perception of a typically flat surface. This new collection features a woven material using the latest technology from Europe. Despite first impressions, the laminates are actually easy to maintain. They're available in three colours and can be used as wall coverings or furniture surfaces.

From Keminates, www.keminates.com.sg

Meter Wall Clock

Taking inspiration from the precision of measuring scales, the minimalist Meter clock is designed to embody only the essential in its simplest form. The clock hands are available in either white or black.

$109, from Nalisse, www.nalisse.com

Crestar Ceiling Fans

With a new updated classic body fused with Crestar's innovative 188 Alumni Motor, the Hylite, Techlite and Winlite series introduce new unique sizes that fit in different spaces. It also saves space with the option of a 22W LED light kit design and offers four speed options to maximise wind performance.

Price on enquiry, from Crestar, www.crestarfan.com.sg

Bang & Olufsen Cool Modern Collection

Bringing a warmer nuance to the monochrome world of electronic design is Bang & Olufsen's collection of brass-toned products. Its most popular sound systems, speakers and TVs now come in warm brass and rich colours, including two jewel-toned fabrics for speaker covers and smoked oak lamellas for the BeoVision 14 television.

Price on enquiry, from Bang & Olufsen, www.bang-olufsen.com

Kitty McCall Printed Textiles

Sumptuous colour palettes are definitely the calling card of Kitty McCall, a UK-based interiors and accessories brand. From cushions, poufs, bar stools to fabrics, these furnishing fabrics are digitally printed and handmade in England. What we love is you can add a riot of patterns to your living space in a co-ordinated set of soft furnishings or just mix things up.

$89 onwards, from Bláfink, www.blafink.com

DINNER DELIGHTS

Just like the sofa, your dining table is the statement piece of your dining space. These dining table options we've picked out will shine in most settings – from farmhouse chic to urban styles.

LEMA Memo Table

Balance, symmetry and a tabletop that measures from three metres in length characterise this sprawling table. The top is made from either heat-treated oak or Lava stone, then set upon a metal structure in a sleek Titanium hue or a rich Borgogna red.

Price on enquiry, from W.Atelier,
www.watelier.com

District Eight Compass Dining Table

Taking unabashed industrial lines as its design inspiration, this handsome table has a solid oak top fastened to a hand-cast blackened steel base. The scissor-legs feature brushed brass collars that further add to its masculine vibe. As with all solid wood tables, this oak table will age gracefully with a weathered style that only adds to its charm.

$3,100, from Journey East, www.journeyeast.com

Wishbone Light Dining Collection by Square Roots

Deriving its name from its wishbone-styled legs, this table is put together by placing large slabs of fumed oak on a recycled cast iron base. The smoked oak finish emphasises the wood details and highlights the rich tannins in the oak slabs. There is also an option of a matching bench.

$1,850 onwards, from Mountain Teak, www.mountainteak.com

Frag Atelier Dining Table

Available in two sizes, this formal-looking dining table by Designer Mist-O has a concrete effect tabletop that matches well with its brushed, dark grey powder-coated base. It's also available with an Alpi wood veneer top.

$7,500 onwards, from The Beuro, www.thebeuro.com

Alexander Lamont Fougere Dining Table

This impressive table sure makes a refined statement in the dining room. The legs take the form of beautifully curved elephant tusks, elegantly supported by a stand. A closer look at this ornate table reveals that the top is finished in Calligrapher's Lacquer, a special concoction that comprises five layers of deep red vegetal lacquer with pure gold leaf.

Price on enquiry, from Tatum Singapore, www.tatumcompany.com

Weiland Dining Table

Slanted like an inverted trapezium, the legs of this solid American black walnut table show off a design-centric vibe. This asymmetrical profile is contrasted by the sturdy and straight-laced tabletop, resulting in a surprisingly harmonious pairing. Its versatile style also means it matches with most dining chairs, from wood to upholstered.

$1,799, from Commune, www.thecommunellife.com

Jeppu Butcher Wood Top Dining Table

This butcher wood top table is made to withstand years of wear and tear which makes it a family-friendly piece. While the top follows a more traditional sense of style, the bottom where the black power coated steel legs are has an interesting symmetrical form which modernises the entire look.

$1,350, from Blåfink, www.blåfink.com

Slice Dining Table

Extendable tables are great for the compact home that loves to entertain guests. This oak wood piece can double its capacity of seating 10 guests when fully extended. Equipped with the Poettker butterfly extension system, the mechanism is sleekly hidden underneath the tabletop, leaving no obstruction in between the table after extending it.

$2,255 onwards, from Ethnecraft Online Singapore, www.ethnecraft-online.com.sg

DREAM THEME

From creature comforts to eye candy, we've put together 5 must-haves to a dreamy sleeping sanctuary.

LEMA Hangar Closet by Piero Lissoni

Ideal for those with a minimalist wardrobe, the Hangar closet introduces a boutique style that goes beyond chic. It is designed to store everyday objects with its intelligent and functional system so that everything stays neat yet free-flowing.

Price on enquiry, from W.Atelier, www.watelier.com

PAX Wardrobe

PAX meets all your wardrobe requirements ranging from drawer colours to closet door designs. You can also customise the storage compartments based on your needs by adding shelving, storage baskets, clothing rails and even LED lighting strips.

From $863.90, from IKEA, www.ikea.com/singapore

Reviti Ceiling Fan

With a versatile style that matches both modern and minimalist-styled bedrooms, the Reviti ceiling fan sports a deceptively simple yet functionally efficient design. It can be fitted with fan blades that measure up to 42 inches, and an option to have built-in LED lights. The compact form of the Reviti fan makes it ideal for low-ceiling rooms and its energy-efficient DC motor helps you stay cool all day long.

Price on enquiry, from Decor Fan Singapore, www.decorfansingapore.com

Studioart Ginkgo Leather Tiles

While tiles are typically installed in wet areas like the kitchen or bathroom, these pastel leather tiles offer a softer touch. This in turn, creates a plush and cosy feature wall that is well suited for the sleeping area.

Price on enquiry, from Tatum Singapore, www.tatumcompany.com

Sliding Doors by Raumplus

A disorganised bedroom strewn with clothing is a nightmare! The Raumplus is a room divider system that can help keep visual clutter at bay with its German-engineered sliding systems. The made-to-measure system lets you utilise every inch of space. This means you can customise your wardrobe space, whatever the size of your bedroom.

Price on enquiry, from THE EWINS HOME, www.theewinshome.com

PLUSH UNDERFOOT

Give cold floors the red carpet treatment with our eye-catching roundup of carpets and rugs.

Kelim Rug

Made using a traditional hand weaving technique called the Punja loom, each and every Kelim rug is a unique one-of-a-kind piece. The wool yarn is hand dyed as well so expect to see some variations in colour. The geometric patterns and gorgeous palette of muted pastels definitely make this rug a keeper for your living space.

Price on enquiry, from Ferm Living, www.fermliving.com

Stroc Rug

Evoking a modern Moroccan vibe with its clean white wool textures and geometric patterns, this rug is well-suited for homes with a contemporary appeal. Available in two sizes, it is embellished with tassels which add a decorative feature to its overall simple design.

$1,495 onwards, from BoConcept, www.boconcept.sg

Scandi Triangle Rug

As its name suggests, this modern geometric rug features a refreshing colour palette, making it a good fit for Scandinavian styles. It offers a flat-surface so dragging chairs over the rug will be a smoother experience, making it well suited for the dining room and study.

$590, from Departures & Arrivals, www.livingdna.sg

Kasthall Archipelago Carpet

Based on designer Gunilla Lagerhem's water colour paintings, the Archipelago carpet captures the seasonal changes in the landscape. These hand-tufted carpets are made from the finest wool and linen with shimmering lurex details. It encompasses the latest yarn blends and patterns, well-developed by Lagerhem to surpass the traditional.

Price on enquiry, from W.Atelier, www.watelier.com

Gus Rug

Natural coloured wool and viscose make up this floor rug and its edgy design brings to mind shards of natural stone set together in harmony. It is anything but sharp underfoot as its soft and plush texture offers a warm welcome into your space.

$1,495 onwards, from BoConcept, www.boconcept.sg

Honeycomber Rug

Adding a cheerful splash to your floors is definitely the Honeycomber rug which comes in four bold colours. It carries a striking hexagonal design which will come on strong with its graphic pattern. This rug is hand woven in India and is made from 100 percent wool.

$380, from Ni-Night, www.ni-night.com

Patan Rug

Unlike most rugs which come in standard sizes, the Patan rug from Vanghent can be customised by size. This means it will fit the most awkward of spaces from a long corridor to an odd-shaped living room. The symmetry of the classic patterns draws out an appealing order and a dynamic modern composition.

$1,100 per square metre, from Tatum Singapore, www.tatumcompany.com

Jute Rug

This round hand-woven braided rug emits a rustic bohemian flair that will go well on bedroom floors. It is crafted out of 100 percent jute, a type of coarse strong thread made from vegetable fibre, which makes it eco-friendly. The natural tones add a soothing aesthetic.

$129, from Maissonne, www.maissonne.com

Modern Nepalese Weave Rug

Neutral grey can be a very basic colour for a rug but this cool silvery hue is anything but. Take some time with it and you will discover the two different colour variations that this hand-spun bamboo silk rug offers. Standing at one end will show a faded tone but you'll see a much richer colour as you move to the other end of the rug.

$5,800, from Jehan Gallery, www.jehangallery.com

LIGHT UP YOUR LIFE

From the basic to the dramatic, these lighting designs will illuminate your room with flair.

Tom Dixon Melt Light

Produced by traditional glassblowing, the molten form and finish of the Melt lamps is beyond captivating. This stunning pendant light, designed by Tom Dixon and Swedish design group FRONT, has an organic form that is accentuated by a dazzling range of mirror finishes. When the light is turned on, the glossy finish becomes transparent, further showcasing its lines of fluidity.

$1,210 onwards, from XTRA, www.xtra.com.sg

Atwell Pendant

This steampunk-inspired piece has three sockets in a single file within a jointed brass-accented rod frame. Clear glass shows off the simplicity of the lightbulbs and lets the focus fall on its unique frame. We can imagine a row of the Atwell pendant beautifully lighting up the dining table.

$799, from Crate & Barrel, www.crateandbarrel.com.sg

HK Living Wicker Hanging Lamp L

This dome-shaped beauty from HK Living features a hand-woven bamboo nest shade that introduces a sense of tranquillity to a room. When the light is turned on, the gaps around the pendant lamp cast alluring shadows across the room. This is a lamp that turns heads, whether it's switched on or off.

$610, from Make Room, www.make-room.net

Hay NOC Wall Lamp

Designed by Jack Smith and Gemma Matthias, this trendy wall light works great as a bedside lamp or a reading light. The shade is made from faceted aluminium, and is completely adjustable. It's a simple and fuss-free design that isn't intrusive – ideal for the restful bedroom space.

$286, from Dream, www.dream.com.sg

Nellcote Arcylic Spiral of Light

Rotate each independent layer of this captivating chandelier to create infinite design possibilities. Designer Palmer Earley intended this luminaire sculpture to be mobile and customisable. At the heart of the lighting fixture are four candles wrapped in crystal acrylic, with solid brass fittings.

$3,500, from The Beuro, www.thebeuro.com

DelightFULL Turner Table Lamp

You might be surprised to learn that the Turner table is inspired by, and named after, Tina Turner's slick dance moves. The art deco design can be rotated, and each copper-plated arc can twist independently. Create a symmetrical look, a concentric design, or fashion a cage, and you'll have a story to tell the next time you have guests over.

$3,800, from The Beuro, www.thebeuro.com

Alexander Lamont Castries Table Lamp

Wordsmiths and bookworms will dig this lamp that, upon close inspection, has words wrapped around its base. The cast brass text depicts the poem of Trinidadian poet Derek Walcott, "Love After Love", conveying a beautiful message in both the literal and aesthetic sense.

Price on enquiry, from Tatum Singapore, www.tatumcompany.com

Industrial Lamp

This trendy yet ubiquitous table lamp proves that good design never goes out of style. Coated in a lustrous metallic finish, this industrial-style lamp's timeless and classic outlines will definitely earn a place on your desk. It also works great as a bedside lamp.

Price on enquiry, from Typo, www.cottonon.com/sg

Lantern Table Lamp

Build your own table lamp with Lantern, which is made in Barcelona and comes disassembled in a flat, custom-made packaging. Fix the plywood pieces together to form the geometric caged frame, then leave it lying on its side on the table or the floor, for a cool source of light.

$135.90, from Nailise, www.nailise.com

Joe Cariati Table Lamps

Joe Cariati's collection of hand-blown glass table lamps come in exquisite forms and colours. Handcrafted and highly detailed, these shapely lamps will add elegance and visual drama to your nightstand, study desk or sideboard.

Price on enquiry, from Vanilla Home, www.vanillahome.com

My Cinema Lightbox

Get nostalgic with this fun LED light box that brings to mind the magic of old cinema signs. It comes in three sizes: mini, original and XL. Put together a personalised message with the interchangeable letters, plug it in and display it on the table or on the wall!

$60 onwards, from Journey East, www.journeyeast.com